

A DAY WITH THE KING

This week we will study in the Bible about another man who was faithful and obedient. His name was Abraham.

Torchlight

“Abraham’s unquestioning obedience is one of the most striking evidences of faith to be found in all the Bible”.
– Patriarchs & Prophets p. 126

GENESIS 12:1-20

LET'S THINK ABOUT THIS

Four hundred years had passed since the flood, and Abram was 75 years old. God spoke to him and told him He wanted him to leave his family and home country and travel to a land that God had chosen for him. God wanted to preserve and protect Abram and his family from the influence of idol worship. He wanted to preserve the family line in to which Jesus would be born. Abram was very faithful and obedient in responding to God's call and left with his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot and all their helpers and possessions. Hebrews 11:8 tells us that Abram didn't know where he was going, but by faith he obeyed God. The last part of chapter 12 tells us of Abraham's temporary move to Egypt.

Do you know that you can pray to God and ask Him for more faith? Wouldn't it be amazing to have the same faith that Abram had when he answered God's call.

GENESIS 13:1-18

LET'S THINK ABOUT THIS

When Abram and his household came back from Egypt to the land of Canaan, there was strife between Lot's herdsmen and Abram's herdsmen. They had so much livestock between them there was not enough pasture. So Abram and Lot decided to part ways. Lot unwisely chose the plains where the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah were. They were very wicked cities. God told Abram again of the blessings He was going to bestow upon Abram through his many descendants.

Did you know you can ask God to give you wisdom? He is ever ready to answer your prayer. Wisdom is a very special gift to have. It enables us to make wise choices in life and helps us to not get into trouble like Lot did, with the unwise choice he made.

LET'S THINK ABOUT THIS

Abram and Sarai had no children, and that troubled Abram because God kept repeating his promises that Abram's descendants would be great.

Sarai gave her Egyptian servant, Hagar, to Abram to be his wife. God did not intend for men to have two wives. But Sarai and Abram were not patient and didn't wait on God.

They tried to help God fulfil His promise and followed a worldly custom. Hagar had a son to Abram named Ishmael, but this caused much jealousy and heartache in the household.

We can trust God's promises even though, from a human standpoint, it doesn't seem possible. But nothing is impossible for God!

GENESIS 17:1-27

LET'S THINK ABOUT THIS

Again, God is re-confirming his promise to Abram that his descendants will be great. God did this even though Abram and Sarai had done the wrong thing and had not trusted God. That must have been a great comfort to Abram.

God also changed Abram's name to Abraham and Sarai's name to Sarah. God told Abraham that Sarah would have a son and they were to call him Isaac. God also told Abraham that his son Ishmael would be blessed as well.

When we become distrustful of God's promises and go ahead and do things our own way, we get into strife. God loves you so much! If you ask God for forgiveness, He is waiting for you with open arms and wants to pour out His blessings upon you.

GENESIS 18:1-15

LET'S THINK ABOUT THIS

One day, two angels and the Son of God visited Abraham. At first they looked like three strangers travelling through the land. Abraham invited them to stop and visit with him, but soon realised who they were. Abraham attended to their needs and prepared food for them to eat. They told Abraham that Sarah would soon have a son.

Sarah, who now was old, laughed when she heard the Lord say this to Abraham. And the Lord said “Is there anything too hard for the Lord?”

Hebrews 13:2 tells us: “Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some have unwittingly entertained angels”. This certainly came true with Abraham and is a good reminder for us too.

GENESIS 21:1-21

LET'S THINK ABOUT THIS

Abraham was 100 years old when Isaac was born, and Sarah was 90 years old. Wow! God is good. Nothing is impossible with God! God's promises came true. God can be trusted, but it is in His timing, not ours. Because of the jealousy and strife between Sarah and Hagar, which lead to Ishmael mocking Isaac, Sarah told Abraham that he would have to send Hagar and Ishmael away. God agreed with Sarah.

So, with a heavy heart, Abraham obeyed. Because of Abraham's love and prayers for his son, Ishmael, God reassured Abraham that He would take care of Ishmael and make his descendants a mighty people.

As you enter into the Sabbath, think about your memory verse for this week that with God nothing is impossible, and think about how you can apply this to your life. Check out these following verses as well. Matthew 19:26, Genesis 18:14, Jeremiah 32:27.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

God had one more test for Abraham. Because of the mistrust he displayed to God regarding the true identity of Sarah in Egypt, and taking Hagar as a wife and not believing the promise God gave him, God needed to test Abraham's faith again. He asked Abraham to take his only son, Isaac, to Mt Moriah and offer him as a sacrifice. This was an extremely difficult thing for Abraham. His heart was laden with grief during the three day journey to Mt Moriah. But Abraham was obedient and faithful.

As Abraham raised the knife over Isaac, his hand was stayed by an Angel, and a lamb was provided instead of Isaac. There was much rejoicing and God again poured out his promises of great blessings over Abraham's descendants. Abraham was a friend of God. You can find that in James 2:23.
