

This week our study reminds us how important it is to trust and believe in God's promises.

Torchlight

“Jonathan, by birth heir to the throne, yet knowing himself set aside by the divine decree; to his rival the most tender and faithful of friends, shielding David’s life at the peril of his own; steadfast at his father’s side through the dark days of his declining power, and at his side falling at the last—the name of Jonathan is treasured in heaven, and it stands on earth a witness to the existence and the power of unselfish love.”

“For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Our reading today tells us that David composed a song on his harp about the death of Saul and Jonathan. Verses 25 and 26 tell us that David treasured Jonathan's friendship even above his own wives as, in those days, Kings would often marry for political reasons and not for love. Jonathan's death was a tragic loss for David as he had lost a wonderful friend. Jonathan knew that God had ordained David to be the next king because of his own father's unrepentant heart. Jonathan, who was a faithful man, accepted this and supported David as the rightful person next in line to the throne over himself. God had orchestrated Jonathan and David's friendship so they could support one another through those very turbulent and stressful years. Our reading also informs us that, with God's guidance, David went to the land of Judah and the people proclaimed David as King. This was all done in God's timing as it had been many years before that Samuel had anointed David for this role. David's faith had waivered at times and he had made some mistakes but, in the end, David had left the timing of when he would become King in God's hands. God also proved faithful and never deserted David. We can all learn from David and his up and down experiences and remember to hang on to God's hand no matter what we are going through and believe and trust in God's promises.

LET'S THINK ABOUT THIS

A young Amalekite man came from the battlefield to inform David about the deaths of Saul, Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua. But our reading tells us that the young man made a big blunder. Instead of just telling David the facts, he decided to fatten out the story to make himself look good so favour would be shown to him. David and his men mourned greatly for the loss of Saul and Jonathan, even though Saul had caused so much heartache and trauma for David. The young messenger, who had boasted about taking the life of King Saul, had lied, as we know from 1 Samuel 31:4 that Saul took his own life. Because of his lie and boasting he was charged with the killing of the King and taking the life of one anointed by God and was punished with death.

Like Doeg in the previous devotional, this messenger was trying to 'climb the ladder' because of his ambition. But in doing so the messenger lost his life because he tried to make himself important by making the story bigger than it actually was. We need to make sure we tell the truth so that the words that come out of our mouth don't actually get us into big trouble. Look at these verses: Ecclesiastes 5:2-3, Psalm 39:1, and Proverbs 12:19, 22.

LET'S THINK ABOUT THIS

Our reading from the Bible today tells us that David waivered and lost his faith in God's promises. Instead of consulting God about what to do David became discouraged with the constant running away from Saul and fled to the enemy for refuge. Even though Saul had promised not to harm David, David did not trust Saul's unstable mind. King Achish of Gath welcomed David with open arms and gave him the city of Ziklag. Ziklag was an isolated city, which was a blessing in disguise as it kept David, his men and all their families safe from the idol worship of the Philistines. David and his family and his six hundred men and their families lived in Ziklag for well over a year. Our reading ends today with the Philistines preparing for war again against the Israelites.

David was so overwhelmed with the events that were happening around him that it clouded his faith in God. It over shadowed the memories of what God had done for him in the past. Even though David did not forsake the worship of God in the enemy's land, just the fact that he went to the enemy for help dishonoured God. Learn from David's experiences and remember to believe in the promises of God!

1 Samuel 28:3-25

LET'S THINK ABOUT THIS

Sadly our story continues today with Saul and his sons dying on the battlefield against the Philistines. We read in Tuesday's devotional in 1 Samuel 28:17-19 that the evil spirit pretending to be Samuel told Saul he would lose the battle and die. Saul went into the battle with no hope so he could not encourage his army with the confidence of victory. Saul was hit by an arrow and wounded, and begged his armour bearer to take his life. His armour bearer refused and Saul took his own life instead. The Israelites fled and the Philistines won the battle. The next day when the enemy combed the battlefield for spoil, or treasure, they came across the dead bodies of Saul and his sons. They were treated shamefully and hung upon a city wall. The people of Jabesh Gilead, who had been rescued by Saul during the early years of his reign, had compassion on Saul and his sons, and retrieved their bodies and gave them a honourable burial.

Our reading today is a sobering one. Saul had rejected God by choosing to do things his way instead of God's way. God gave Saul plenty of opportunities to repent and change his ways but Saul chose not to because he was a proud man. Don't let pride get in the way of seeking forgiveness from God. God is waiting for us with open arms. He loves us so much – choose God today.

LET'S READ:

1 Samuel 31:1-13

LET'S THINK ABOUT THIS

From our reading today we find that Saul was very fearful and inquired of God as to what to do about the impending war against the Philistines. But God did not answer him. We learn that Saul, in complete desperation, went and consulted a witch. When Samuel was alive, he and Saul, in his early reign, had driven the witches and wizards from the land, as God had warned the Israelites about them in Deuteronomy 18:9-14. The witch at En Dor had been living in secret, as she knew she was not supposed to be there. Saul's visit to the witch was also done in secret, as he knew he shouldn't be there either. Verse 12 tells us that the witch supposedly brought up Samuel from the dead so Saul could ask him what to do. But a witch has no power to do this. Only God has the power to raise people from the dead. God is our original creator and He is the only one who can recreate us. The only conclusion is that it was an evil spirit who was impersonating Samuel.

Ecclesiastes 9:5-6 tells us that when you die, your mind ceases to exist, so you cannot talk to anyone. Psalm 13:3 and John 11:11-14 tells us that death is just a sleep. Job 7:9-10 tells us that once you go to your grave that's where you stay until Jesus resurrects you. Death is something not to be afraid of because if you love Jesus, you will just sleep until He wakes you up at His second coming. Our memory verse is a lovely promise and gives us such hope.

LET'S READ:

1 Samuel 29:1-11

LET'S THINK ABOUT THIS

Our reading today is an interesting one. It tells us that David was in a difficult situation because of the choice he had made to go to the enemy for help. King Achish was flattered that David had come to him for refuge and grew to appreciate and admire him. King Achish naturally thought that David would go with him to war against the Israelites as David had been living in his country for a while. But David knew in his heart he could never fight against his own people. God, in his mercy, got David out of this sticky situation and caused the Philistine lords to reject David and his men and they told Achish to tell David to leave. They didn't trust David to not fight against them.

Wow, God is so good! Even though David had made a poor choice in seeking shelter from the enemy instead of going to God for shelter God still looked after David and got him out of a situation that could have turned into a disaster. God is so merciful! Look that word up in a dictionary to understand it better. It's something to think about!
